

Bamboo ~ A Sogetsu Exhibit

Meet the Sensei (Teacher) Carole (Kohyo) Sakata

For the past seventeen years, one of our former residents Carole Sakata has been dazzling us with her exquisite floral arrangements that have become a beloved fixture in our Lobby. We are so blessed that she continues to share her amazing work with us! We are the only condominium that she shares her expertise with. Her artistry and attention to detail truly elevate any blossom or stem she adds to her creations.

Carole has taught Sogetsu Ikebana in Honolulu since 1997.

She studied in Tokyo under Master Instructor Ms. Yoka Hosono from 1983 to 1996 and continued her studies at the Sogetsu Headquarters under various master instructors and the head of the Sogetsu School, Iemoto Akane Teshigahara.

In 2009, Carole received "Riji" status, which is the highest teaching certificate in Sogetsu Ikebana. She has been the Director of Sogetsu Hawaii Branch since 2007.
